General Provisions

Article 1. Purpose and Citation
1.1. These Regulations establish rules and limitations to the financial activities of political parties and candidates.
1.2. These Regulations shall be cited as “Campaign Finance Regulations” and shall come into force on the date of publication.

Article 2. Definitions
2.1. In these Campaign Finance Regulations, unless context otherwise requires:
“Candidate” means any individual who has been endorsed by a political party or who runs as an independent candidate for an elective public office and has been duly registered by NEC.
“Contribution” means a gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money, or anything having pecuniary value, which is donated to a candidate, campaign treasurer or a political party for use during an election campaign. It includes:
(a) Donations by a political party to the campaign of one or more candidates supported by the party,
(b) Donations by any candidate to his own campaign, and
(c) Donations in-kind (gifts, goods or services); except:
(i) The value of services of individuals who volunteer without compensation, and
(ii) The value of loans made in the ordinary course of business where repayment is required and interest is charged.
“Expense” means any purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit or gift of money or anything of value that is either made by a candidate or political party for an election campaign, or which is made with the knowledge and consent of a candidate or an authorized agent of a candidate or political party for an election campaign. An expense shall also include disbursements for any news story, commentary, or editorial distributed through the facilities of any broadcasting station, newspaper, magazine, or other periodical publication or such facilities that are owned or controlled by a candidate or a political party;
“NEC” means the National Elections Commission;
“Personal Expenses” means all expenses that a candidate would have incurred irrespective of his or her candidacy, such as payments for personal clothing, rent, mortgage, utilities, vacations, personal expenses of family members, and other expenses that are not related to campaigning for office.
“Political Party” means an association registered as a political party, which supports a candidate or candidates in an election.

Article 3. Personal Expenses
3.1. A candidate may not utilize funds contributed to her or his campaign for personal expenses.
Article 4. Designation of Treasurer and Bank Account

4.1. Every political party and every presidential candidate shall designate a campaign treasurer.

4.2. A candidate for an elective public office except the President and Vice President may act as his or her own campaign treasurer.

4.3. Each political party and presidential candidate shall:
   a) Open an account at a depository bank to receive, hold and disburse only the party’s or Presidential candidate’s campaign funds;
   b) Report to the NEC the name and address of the campaign treasurer, the name and address of the depository bank and the number of the account as specified in Form 1.

4.4. The information referred to in Article 4.1 and 4.3(b) shall be submitted by candidates together with their candidate nomination documents, and by political parties no later than the second Tuesday of July of the election year.

4.5. No political party or presidential candidate shall receive any contribution or make any expense when there is a vacancy in the position of treasurer. In the event a treasurer is terminated, dies or retires, the party or candidate shall notify the Commission within 72 hours of the event and the name of the replacement.

4.6. Candidates for an elective public office are jointly responsible with their campaign treasurer (if they have one) for recording and reporting on their campaign finances as required by this Regulation.

Accounting for Contributions and Expenses

Article 5. Accounting for Contributions

5.1. Every contribution received by or on behalf of a political party or a candidate for a campaign shall be recorded and reported to the NEC by the campaign treasurer.

5.2. Candidates may receive contributions for their campaign. All contributions received by a candidate shall be reported to the campaign treasurer.

Article 6. Citizenship of Contributor

6.1. No contribution shall be made to a political party or candidate from a person who is not a citizen of the Republic of Liberia.

6.2. If the person making a contribution is a citizen of the Republic of Liberia but is not resident within the territory of the Republic at the time the contribution is made, the candidate or political party shall on the request of the NEC attest that the funds representing the contribution are the personal funds of the contributor and not comprised of funds owned or controlled by a non-citizen of Liberia.

6.3. Any funds or other assets received directly or indirectly in contravention of the Restriction as mentioned supra shall be turned over or transferred to the NEC, within seven (7) days of receipt to be kept in an escrow account in a designated bank, and after thorough investigation has been made, such funds shall be returned to the political party or candidate to whom the money was sent if not, in contravention of this Restriction. If the funds were received in contravention of this Restriction, the funds will be returned to the contributor or otherwise as ordered by a court.
Article 7. In-Kind Gifts

7.1. Contributions of goods or services given to political parties or candidates shall constitute contributions, calculated at the reasonable market value on the date received.

8.2. No legal person shall contribute more than US$100,000.00 or its equivalent in Liberian dollars in total to a party and its candidates or to independent candidates for use in an election campaign.

8.3. Political parties and candidates shall not utilize public resources for campaign activities and shall not receive any contribution resulting from an abuse of state resources, except state resources that:
   a) Are made available to all candidates and political parties for the election;
   b) Are generally available to the public and are provided on the same terms as to the public;
   c) Are related to providing security staff or security services.

8.4. Article 8.3 does not apply to the use of a state resource that is unavoidable because of the fulfillment of a duty of public office, if the user reimburses the Government for the use of the resource for the campaign.

8.5. The treasurer or candidate shall be responsible for making a good faith effort to determine whether funds received represent prohibited contributions. In the event the treasurer or candidate determines that a prohibited contribution has been received, the contribution shall be refunded and the Commission advised thereof.

Article 9. Limitations to Electoral Expenses

9.1. As specified in Section 20 of the Elections Law, election campaign expenses shall not be incurred or authorized by a candidate or party beyond the Liberian dollar equivalent of the following amounts:
   (a) For President, in excess of Two Million United States Dollars (US $2,000,000.00).
   (b) For Vice President, in excess of One Million United States Dollars (US $1,000,000.00).
   (c) For a Senator, in excess of Six Hundred Thousand United States Dollars (US $600,000.00).
   (d) For a Representative, in excess of Four Hundred Thousand United States Dollars (US $400,000.00).

9.2. This Article shall not be construed to mean that political parties and/or candidates shall be required to have a defined amount deposited in support of a given candidate for each position in this section.

9.3. Expenses incurred in-kind shall be tallied against these expense limitations.
Article 10. Recording Expenses

10.1. All expenses made on behalf of a political party or candidate shall be recorded by the treasurer or candidate. No expense shall be made for any purpose that is prohibited by Law, including but not limited to, paying voters for voting.

Article 11. Expenses from Personal Funds

11.1. Candidates may make expenses on behalf of their campaigns from their personal funds. Expenses made by candidates from personal funds for Election campaign shall be included within the applicable expense limits for that candidate as provided for by Law and reported as contributions and expenses to the NEC under this Regulation.

Article 12. Generic Expenses by Political Parties

12.1. In the case of an expense made by a political party that simultaneously benefits more than one candidate, the expense shall be allocated among the candidates by dividing the amount of the expense by the number of candidates benefited, and that allocation shall be reported to the NEC by each treasurer and candidate concerned.

Article 13. Bookkeeping Requirements

13.1. The treasurer or a candidate acting as his/her own treasurer shall maintain a book of accounts for all contributions received and all expenses made by and for the campaign.

13.2. The treasurer or a candidate acting as his/her own treasurer shall maintain a record of each contribution received including the name, address, occupation and employer (if any) of the contributor, the date of the contribution, and the amount of the contribution as specified in Form 4. In the case of a contribution that is equivalent to $20 US Dollars or less, (a “small contribution”), the treasurer or candidate needs only to record the date, the amount and the name of the contributor.

13.3. The treasurer or a candidate acting as his/her own treasurer shall maintain a record of each expense made, including the date, recipient, purpose and amount of the expense as specified in Form 5, as well as documentary records.

13.4. The book of accounts, the contributor records and the documentary records shall be made available during normal working hours to the NEC on demand.

Article 14. Reporting Requirements

14.2. Fifteen (15) days after the announcement of final results of each election, including by-elections, the political party or candidate shall furnish to the NEC a report of assets, liabilities, a financial summary, contributions and expenses by completing Forms 2, 3, 4 and 5.
14.3. In case a candidate or political party participates in a run-off election, forms shall be submitted fifteen (15) days after the announcement of final results of the run-off election.
14.4. Small contributions shall be reported on Form 4 only as a “total of small contributions”.
14.5. Political parties and candidates shall submit detailed statements from their designated bank accounts.

Article 15. Standard Forms
15.1. All financial reports required to be filed by these regulations shall be made on standard forms promulgated by the NEC (Forms 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5). The NEC shall make such forms available to all registered political parties and candidates upon request and without charge.

Article 16. Publication of Financial Reports by NEC
16.1. The NEC shall make the Assets and Liabilities Form (Form 2) of each candidate available for viewing by the public at the NEC Headquarters in Monrovia during normal working hours. The Form shall be edited to remove the details of the location of the assets from publication.
16.2. The NEC shall make public the itemization of contributions and expenses furnished by each candidate and political party, pursuant to the preceding paragraphs, thirty (30) days after the announcement of results for each election.
16.3. The NEC shall publish on its web-page a financial summary of each Campaign Finance Report.

17.3. Upon recommendation from the Audit Committee that no Liberian auditors meet the criteria of Article 17.2, the NEC may retain auditors from outside the Republic of Liberia.
17.4. A campaign treasurer and candidate shall cooperate fully with representatives of the Audit Committee and shall provide auditors commissioned or appointed by the NEC with full and unrestricted access to records.
17.5. A refusal to cooperate with the Audit Committee shall be subject to penalties imposed pursuant to Chapter IV on Penalties of these regulations.
Article 18. Findings of the Audit Committee

18.1. Upon the completion of the audit period as specified in Article 17 of these Regulations, the Audit Committee shall present to the NEC the results of all audits, including a list of any apparent errors or omissions.

18.2. The NEC must accept or reject, in whole or in part, the findings of the Audit Committee for any candidate or political party within ten (10) days of the presentation of those findings.

18.3. In the event that findings of irregularities are upheld by the NEC, administrative sanctions for “election infractions” or “election offenses,” as the case may be, may be levied by the Commission pursuant to Chapter IV on Penalties of these Regulations.

19.1. Any violation of the provisions of these Regulations, and any violation of the expense limitations provided for by Law, shall be considered a “Campaign Finance Infraction.”
