PRESS STATEMENT

MONROVIA, 22 October 2021, Friday, the Chairperson of the National Elections Commission, (NEC), Madam Davidetta Browne Lansanah, Friday received two diaspora advocacy groups, the Union of Liberia Association in the Americas, (ULAA) and the All Liberian Conference on Dual Citizenship, (ALCOD) at the Headquarters of the Commission on 9th Street, in Sinkor.

Both ULAA and ALCOD commended the Commission for the successful conduct of the 2020 Special Senatorial Elections, (SSE) and Constitutional Referendum. At which time they presented a plague bearing the Logo of the NEC and the name of the Chairperson Davidetta Browne Lansanah to Madam Browne Lansanah.

In appreciation, Madam Browne Lansanah commended the work of ULAA and ALCOD to advocate on behalf of Liberians in the diaspora referencing, dual citizenship, which was not approved in the 2020 Special Senatorial Elections and Constitutional Referendum.
(From left to right) ALCOD Chair, Weetee, ULAA Chair, Sieh presents Award to NEC-Liberia Boss, Madam Browne Lansanah.
(Right to Left), Susan and Sieh of ULAA, NEC Boss, Browne Lansanah, Weettee, of ALCOD, Howard